Notes:

The wind was pretty fierce. Still working on consistency. Very much feast or famine on this round. 3-wood was biggest hurdle. Didn't really get it dialed in until last few holes.

Had some of my best sand shots ever. But, don't let #9 discount that. That was a brutal lie in a fairway bunker! Didn't play it smart, either.

All that being said, Mag Creek is definitely my favorite course in the Houston area. Very Euro-links style.

Jon Jordening Not too bad, all things considered. Looks like your driver heated up on the back nine! Looking forward to your next Cali visit!

Rob Camper If my 3-wood had been on, I would've easily shot sub-100

Pitching Wedge: 30 min
Average carry dist: 105 yds
Max carry distance: 110 yds
Worked on: accuracy

Notes:

8 Iron: 20 min
Average carry dist: 125 yds
Max carry distance: 135 yds
Worked on: fighting a draw

Notes:

Started to really feel the benefits of compression. Also, when I get a full body turn, I actually started to fade the ball...

6 Iron: 10 min
Average carry dist: 150 yds
Max carry distance: 160 yds
Worked on: distance

Notes:

4 Hybrid: 15 min
Average carry dist: 175 yds
Max carry distance: 175 yds
Worked on: fighting a draw

Notes:

So much easier off a tee, then the turf...

3 Metal: 30 min
Average carry dist: 180 yds
Max carry distance: 195 yds
Worked on: solid contact

Notes:

Same as the hybrid... so much easier off a tee, then the turf...

Driver: 30 min
Average carry dist: 225 yds
Max carry distance: 230 yds
Worked on: consistency

Notes:

Feast or famine...

Total time: 2hrs 15min

Notes:

Been really working on staying loose throughout the entire swing. It seems to take about a good 10 shots with each club to get there... But when it happens, man oh man, it's pretty sweet! But being able to translate that to the course has been my biggest problem... Last round, my 3-metal was the worst!

Kip Fox Went through the same process when I was killing myself over weight transfer. It takes time. You'll get there! Hey - looking at your stats... get thee to the putting green, Captain 3-Putt!
